Colors play an important role in our lives. Specific colors lend very definite and distinctive vibrations to our meditative and creative work. A great amount of power can be added to your personal work by burning the correct colors of candles, wearing specific colors of clothing and writing your affirmations, prayers or sigils in the appropriate colored inks. The colors help to link your individual energy in with the various forces at work in the Universe and make a pathway for your power to be directed towards a desired conclusion.
